Situation: In the hallway, at the end of class.

Alice: Frank, you look a little nervous. Is something bothering you?

Frank: Well, I've been worrying a lot about that French test we have next week. I need to get an A to keep my scholarship, so I really need to get a good score, but I've heard the final is always difficult.

Alice: I understand how you feel. I try to study French at least 30 minutes every day, but I still don't feel like I've really got a handle on the grammar.

Frank: I'm more nervous about the speaking part. Pronunciation isn't my strong suit, no matter how much I practice. On the other hand, I actually feel pretty comfortable with the grammar.

Alice: _____ [23] _____ Since we're having different problems, maybe we could help each other: me with pronunciation for you, and you with grammar for me?

Frank: You know, that sounds like a great idea. It'd really help me review everything, too! When are you available?

Alice: Hmm... Well, I don't have any plans right now. Maybe we could start now?

Frank: I was going to go get a coffee before doing some studying. Would you _____ [24] _____

Alice: What a great idea! I'd love to get a cup myself.

23

- ① I am not very comfortable with the pronunciation, either.
- ② I am very comfortable with grammar, just like you.
- ③ You know, I feel pretty good about the pronunciation.
- ④ Your pronunciation doesn't need any help at all!
- ⑤ You should really study grammar a little less, don't you think?

24

- ① bring the textbook to me at the café so I can study?
- ② buy me a cup of coffee, and then I'll help your pronunciation?
- ③ leave me alone so I can have some quiet time?
- ④ like to join me, and we could study at the café?
- ⑤ make me a cup of coffee, and then I can go home?

Situation: Outside the university club building.

Kelly: Look at all these flyers from the clubs, Tina! There are so many options to choose from. Are you thinking about joining any?

Tina: I'd like to, but I've been feeling overwhelmed by the options. Which ones are you thinking about? Maybe we could join one together.

Kelly: Well, _____ 25 _____ Look, they go on weekly trips across the city to take pictures. I'd love to explore new places with everyone.

Tina: Honestly, that's too much traveling just to take photos. And the only camera I have is my smartphone!

Kelly: Hmm... Well, look at this one for the debate club. It's just a once a month, and we'd get better at public speaking.

Tina: I don't know... Speaking in front of people makes me nervous.

Kelly: Well, how about the cooking club? Every other Friday you get to eat whatever you make!

Tina: Hey, that sounds more like the club for me! Does it say anything about costs?

Kelly: On the back of this flyer, it says they collect 2,000 yen each time to pay for the ingredients and equipment.

Tina: That sounds kind of expensive to me. You know, 26
I'll decide which one I'll join later.

25

- ① anyone with a smartphone can join this really cool touring club!
- ② did I show you the flyer for the weekly walking event club?
- ③ the city exploration club is offering all new members their own cameras.
- ④ the international travel club has some really nice sounding events planned.
- ⑤ this flyer here for the photography club makes it look like a lot of fun!

26

- ① I definitely want to join one of the clubs with you today.
- ② I think I'm going to join the cooking club after all.
- ③ maybe you should just join one on your own for now.
- ④ how about we start our own cooking club together?
- ⑤ you should really sign me up for the debate club with you.

Situation: Ordering at a restaurant.

Server: Good afternoon! Welcome to our restaurant. How can I help you today?

Customer: Hi there! Could you recommend something from your menu? Everything looks so good, and 27 so I'm not sure what to order.

Server: I'd be happy to make some recommendations. Are you in the mood for anything in particular, like a hearty dish or something lighter?

Customer: Well, I've had a long day, so I'm pretty hungry, but I'm also trying to watch what I eat. So, I'd like something filling, but nothing too greasy, please. Maybe a pasta dish or a salad with some sort of meat?

Server: In that case, how about our chicken Caesar salad? We're pretty famous for it actually. It's a nice serving of grilled chicken on a bed of leafy green lettuce, and some crispy croutons on top.

Customer: That sounds perfect! _____²⁸_____ I'd like to keep it healthy.

Server: That would be no problem. _____²⁹_____ Would you be interested in a cup?

Customer: You know, I'm sure it's very delicious, but I'm not a big fan of beans. But could I get a side order of bread instead of the soup?

Server: We have buttered toast, garlic bread and French bread. I usually suggest the garlic bread – it's served nice and warm – but which would you prefer?

Customer: You sold me on that! So, chicken Caesar salad, dressing on the side, and an order of garlic bread, please.

Server: Excellent! Would you like anything to drink with your meal?

Customer: _____³⁰_____

Server: Certainly! Let me go tell the kitchen your order, and I'll be right back with that lemon water for you. Your salad – dressing on the side – and garlic bread will be here very soon. Enjoy your meal!

Customer: I'm sure I will. Thank you for your help!

27

- ① I'd like to eat whatever it is that you're having,
- ② I don't feel particularly hungry right now,
- ③ the options don't really look so good to me,
- ④ there's just so many things to choose from,
- ⑤ this salad sounds like a good choice to me,

28

- ① Could you please add some beans to it as well?
- ② Do you think you could get me some extra dressing?
- ③ May I ask you to remove some of the chicken, too?
- ④ Would you be interested in having some dressing?
- ⑤ Would you mind putting the dressing on the side?

29

- ① If you wanted to eat healthy, you might also try our bean dressing on the side.
- ② I usually recommend everyone try one of our hearty bean soups with the salad.
- ③ The Caesar salad also comes with a cup of soup or a plate of bread on the side.
- ④ Today's coffee is fresh from Java in Indonesia, and very good, too.
- ⑤ We also have a nice side dish of beans served with some cheese and bread.

30

- ① Could you get me some water, with a little bit of lemon, please?
- ② Could you recommend me a nice refreshing drink to go along with my meal?
- ③ Do you have any water that would look good in a lemon cup?
- ④ I would love to have some lemon juice, if you have any available.
- ⑤ Would you mind making me a tall glass of fresh lemonade as well?
